

2010 Eden Corn Festival August 5-6-7-8

DO YOU HAVE AN A-MAIZE-ING KID?

The Corn Fest is looking for boys and girls 12 years and younger with creativity, personality, and even a corny sense of humor to compete in our A-Maize-ing Kid competition.

Saturday Aug. 7, 2010 @ 7pm
Entry Fee $5 Everyone Wins!
Great Prizes!

This year at the Sweet Corn Pageant we are adding the A-maize-ing kid competition. All participants get an A-maize-ing kid tee shirt to decorate to showcase their personality and talents. They will not have to perform any talent. They will be asked to come on stage and show off their shirt and answer questions about it. Judging is 50 points on shirt and 50 points on stage presence. We have great prizes and everyone gets one. This activity is to give kids an opportunity to get up on stage and show us they are A-Maize-ing. It gives us the opportunity to see their creativity, personality and applaud them for it. For boys and girls 12 years and younger. Little ones can have their parent come on stage or hold them. Older children will be asked additional questions. "What is your favorite thing about the Corn Festival?", to pull out their personality. All are asked to have a 50 word (or less) Bio for us to read about each child while they come on stage. A quick run through will be Friday @ 6:30pm. It will be fun and well organized! Everyone will feel special and get a great prize! All A-Maize-ing kids and family are asked to ride on the Sweet Corn Pageant Float in the parade Sunday the 8th at 12 Noon and will be given an additional gift for riding.
